NOTE

FROM THE EDITOR

This episode of Design Life is dedicated to something very special: my new Brix&Co. line of tables, now available for order!

Throughout, we'll show how they came to life and highlight some of the vendors who have made it possible.

We've been thrilled by the response so far. These tables are true conversation pieces, sustainably designed to elevate your space and stand the test of time. In fact, if you are looking for one in your home, reach out to me. I currently have an exquisite piece of soapstone that would make a stunning coffee table!

Also, keep an eye out for our upcoming T-shirt and hat designs. Please enjoy this issue of Design Life!

SERENITY by BRIX&CO.

Introducing Brix&Co. Serenity Tables, now available in console, coffee, and side table variations.

These tables blend natural stone and wood remnants to unleash nature in your home. With their sleek angled edges and floating shelf design, they offer a modern aesthetic that's both stylish and functional.

The timeless appeal of our Serenity Tables makes them the perfect addition to any interior aesthetic.

What makes our Serenity Tables truly special is their uniqueness. Each piece is one-of-a-kind, ensuring you have a conversation piece that's as distinct as you are.

Alternatively, if you prefer a more cohesive look, we can craft a series from a single, full slab.

Additionally, all pieces here at Brix&Co are made in Canada by local artisans with all materials being natural and sustainably produced.

Learn more about how we've combined sustainability and craftsmanship at BrixandCo.com.

Starting a furniture line has been a dream of mine for a long time.

It was amazing how everything came together once I decided that I owed it to myself to see it through.

It's been a whirlwind, but I'm having the time of my life!

Optimizing Space for Family Living

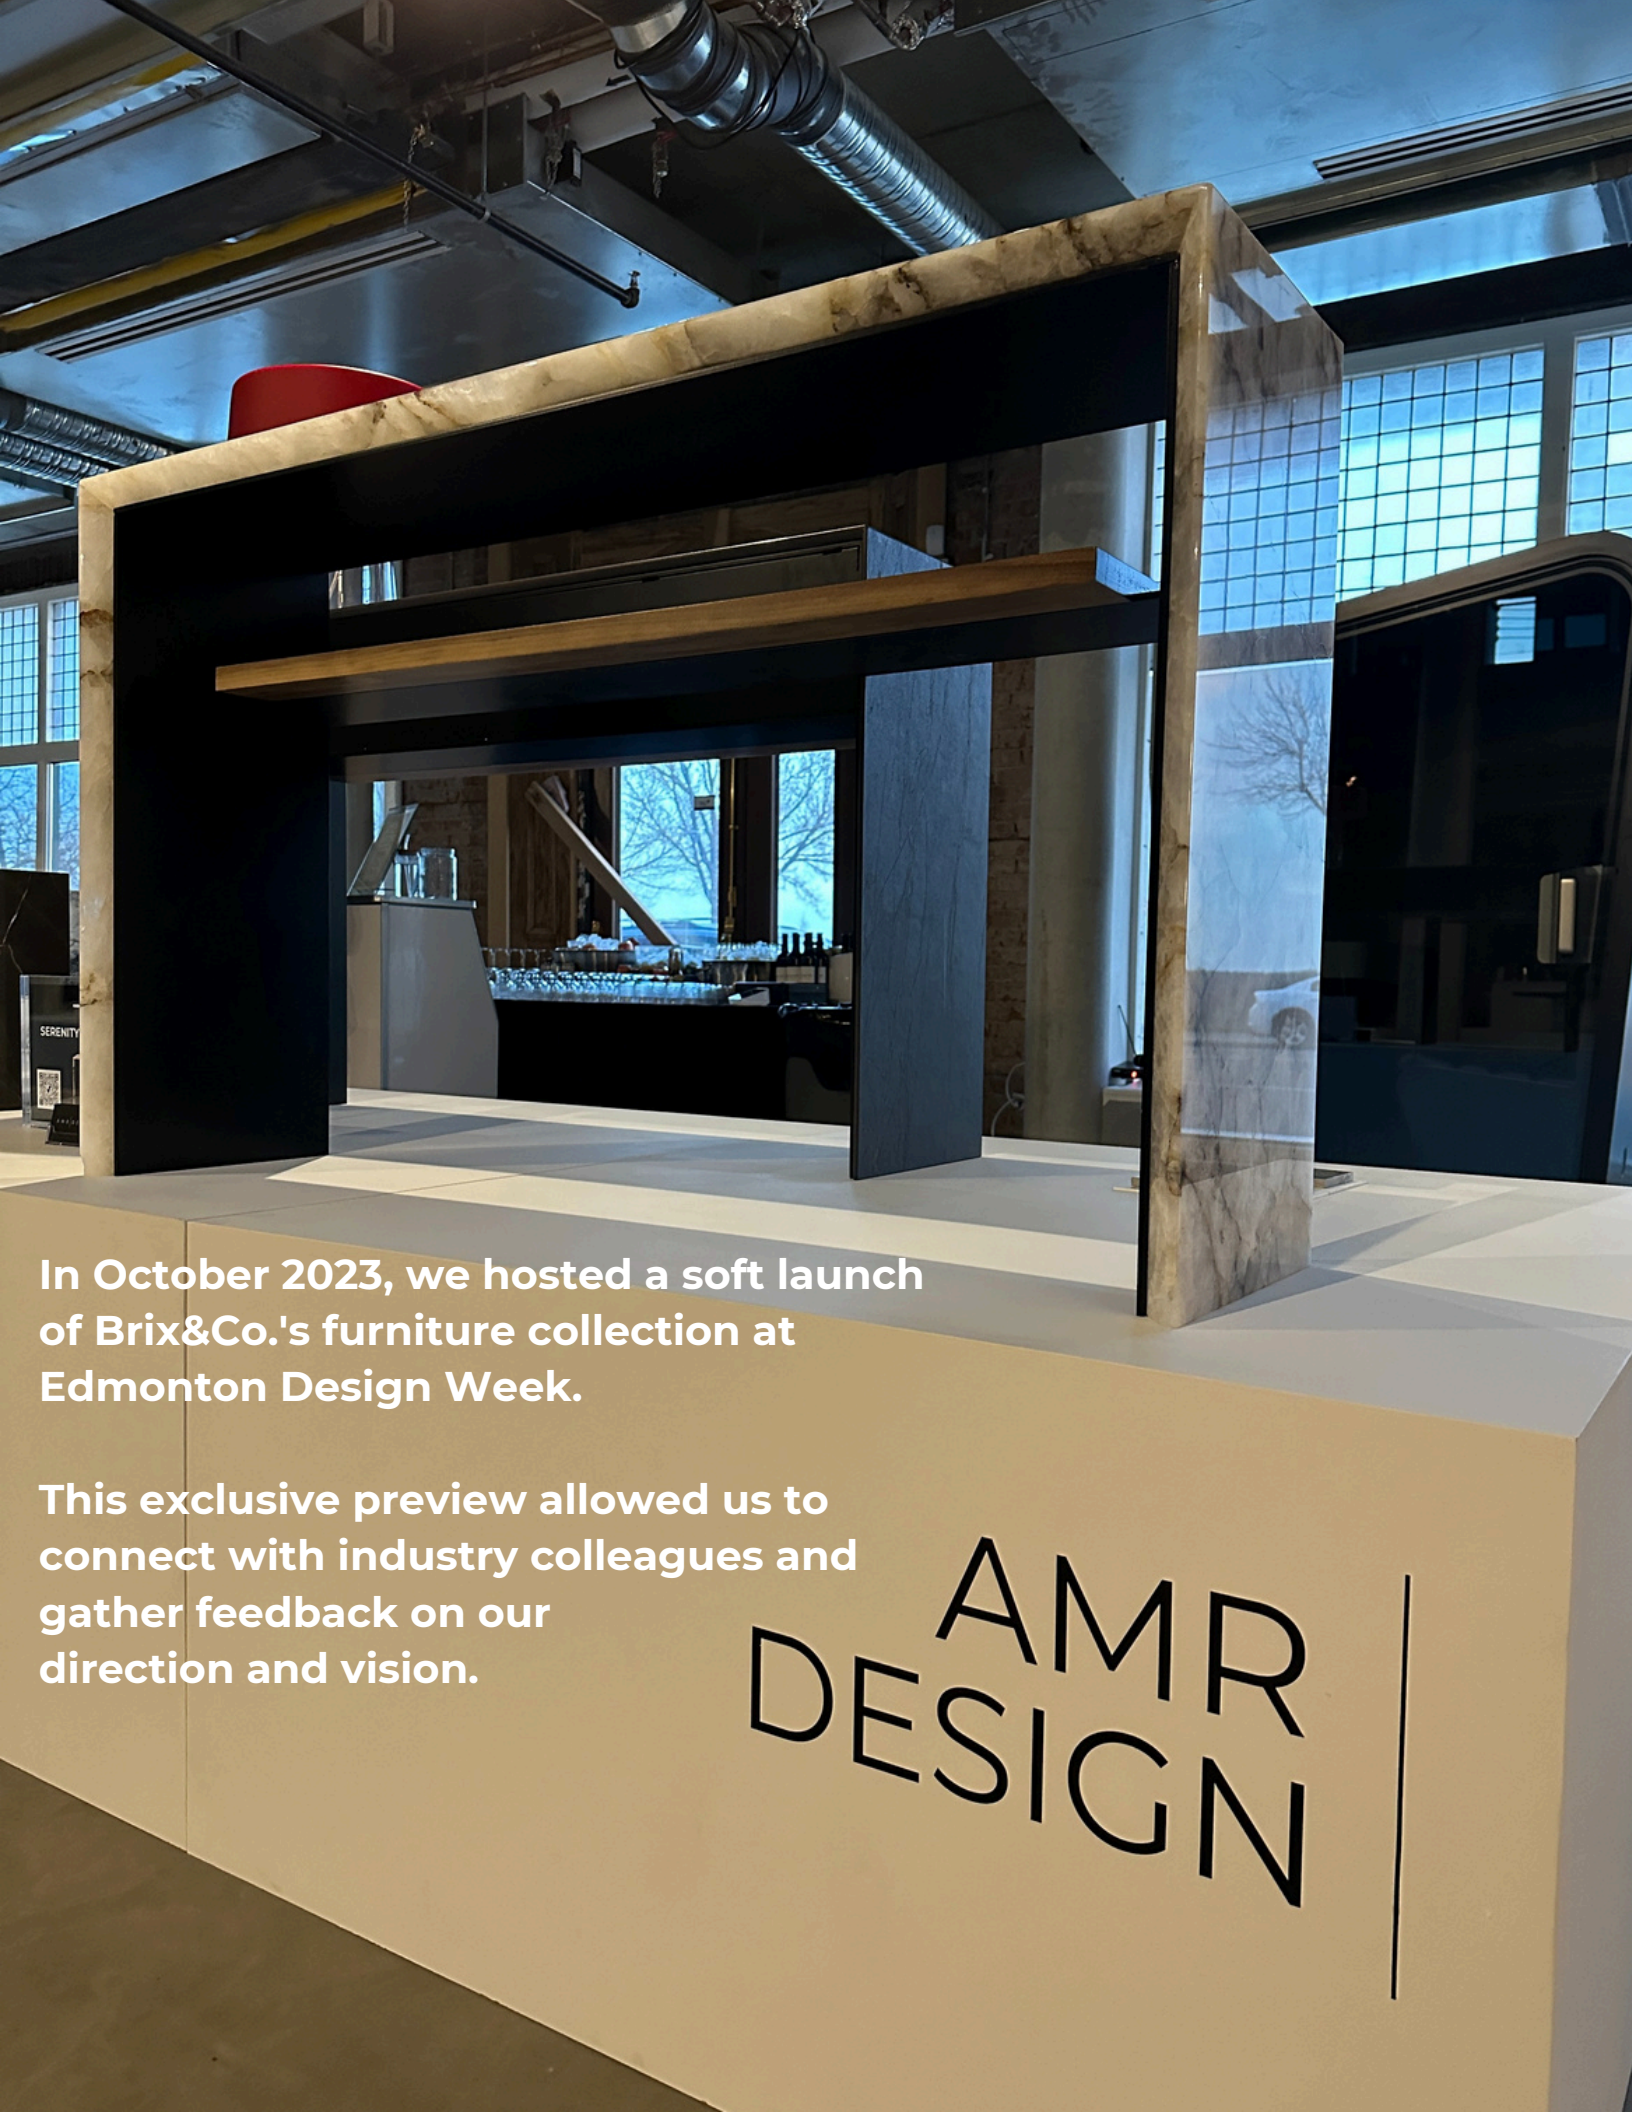

Sustainability is central to Brix&Co.'s mission in many ways.

First, our products are crafted from wood and stone remnants, diverting materials from landfills and aligning with our environmental commitment.

Secondly, we believe in creating quality products that enhance your space and stand the test of time. Each piece is crafted with meticulous attention to detail, with a focus on durability and longevity.

Our Serenity Tables are more than just furniture; they're timeless pieces of art that seamlessly integrate into any space, promising enduring beauty.

In October 2023, we hosted a soft launch of Brix&Co.'s furniture collection at Edmonton Design Week.

This exclusive preview allowed us to connect with industry colleagues and gather feedback on our direction and vision.

BLOG HIGHLIGHT

Sustainability at forefront

What happens when we need to create a larger order of Brix&Co. tables? We refuse to sacrifice sustainability for scalability.

That's where Cosentino comes into play. These true sustainability leaders have been creating ultra compact stone products for decades.

We sat down with them recently and learned more about their products, their cutting edge technologies and how they include sustainability in every step of their processes. Click the link below to learn more!

PLANNING AHEAD

We are currently planning our projects for 2025. Yes - you read that correctly!

Yes, we are just reaching the middle of 2024. However, a design project requires significant planning.

For example, did you know that a major renovation requires between four and six months of planning or that a new build requires a full year of planning before construction begins?

Are you considering a major project in the new year? Read our article below to find out how you can plan to make the most of your design investment.
